

Dear FCC,

I am sorry to hear that you wish to shelf the Indiana law regarding telemarketers in favor of a more relaxed Federal Law. I stopped answering "my" phone when 90% of my calls were telemarketers and let the answering machine get it. It a sad thing when people make you afraid of answering your own phone. I believe we need greater privacy laws not less strick laws.